Onion Eating

While cooking a meal for my husband recently I stopped to eat a pickled onion. I have had several more since and enjoyed them all.

Next week I intend to buy a new jar.

Mrs S. Hunter
Macclesfield

Tell us about your crazy food fetishes. A fiver for the best letter.

You? ASK WE??? ANSWER

I have often wondered why trains go faster than buses.

Mrs. E. Edwards
Cheltenham

Well Mrs Edwards, that certainly is a puzzler. We rang British Rail enquiries who told us that modern trains can travel at anything up to 125 mph (Miles per hour).

Buses however are subject to the national speed restriction of 70 mph (60 mph on a single carriageway) and 30 mph in a built up area, i.e. one in which the street lights are less than 200 feet apart.

Is there something baffling you? Write to us, and we'll answer. 'You Ask, We Answer', Viz Comic, Viz House, 16 Lily Crescent, Newcastle upon Tyne NE2 2SP.

Several years ago when I broke a mirror I remembered the superstition about '7 years bad luck'.

Two years later I entered a competition to win a holiday for two in Paris. Needless to say I lost.

Lucky Elephant

A friend told me that the ornamental elephant on my sideboard should point towards the door and that it was bad luck to have it pointing towards the television. I laughed at the idea, but I did turn it round as she had suggested.

Ten minutes later I won the pools.

Ladder Luck

My husband recently bought a small pair of aluminium step ladders from our local D.I.Y. centre.

Luckily I do not think there is sufficient room for anybody to walk under them.

Mrs D. McNaughton
Burnley

My father, an ex-fisherman, told me when I was a child that it was bad luck to wave to the boats as they put out to sea.

One day I did wave and his boat was immediately consumed by a large fish. Luckily we both saw the funny side.

Miss A. Howard
Whitby

"That's a big lemon," said my 3 year old daughter during a recent visit to the shops.

She was pointing to a grapefruit!

Mrs A. Kingsley

I wonder why English restaurants don't serve the feet when cooking rabbits. After all, the French eat frogs' legs.

You never know, it may bring good luck to those who dared eat them.

My mother, who is 69, is not a particularly superstitious person.

VICTOR PRATT THE STUPID TWAT

Dr David Jackson

wants to know about your sexual problem

A READER WRITES:

Dear Dr Jackson,

I am 29 years old and have been happily married for the last six. Recently I have become aware of a growing desire to fondle my own buttocks. I have been doing this two or three times a day, whenever my wife and children are out of the house.

However I now feel a strong urge to go outside and fondle my buttocks in the garden shed.

I am scared to talk to my local GP as he is a close friend of the family. Should I tell my wife? I am scared that she will leave me.

PL, Warwickshire.

Have any other readers experienced similar urges? Perhaps you have fondled other parts of your body. Write and tell me about it. Write to: Dr David Jackson, Viz Comic, 16 Lily Crescent, Newcastle upon Tyne NE2 2SP. Please mark your envelope 'SEXUAL PROBLEM'.

WHERE'S? the TOILET?

Here's a chance for you to test your powers of observation.

Every issue we feature a photograph of a toilet taken somewhere in the UK. Do you recognise the urinals pictured below? Perhaps you've used them recently. Study the picture carefully and try to work out where it is. If you're stuck, the answer is printed below.

This issue's toilet is at Metro Radio, in Swallowwell, Tyne and Wear.

FISH of the WEEK

What is your favourite fish? Perhaps it's haddock, herring or bass. Or maybe you're a fan of bream.

Write and tell us about the kind of fish you like. Every issue we'll be featuring a new fish as suggested by a reader. For our first 'Fish Of The Week' we have chosen carp.

No.1 Carp

Which fish would you like to see? Write to: Fish Of The Week, Viz Comic, Viz House, 16 Lily Crescent, Newcastle upon Tyne NE2 2SP. £1 paid for each letter we print.

KILLER WASP SEX VICAR IN GAY NAZI STORM

By our INVESTIGATIVE STAFF

A village vicar has denied taking part in moonlit ceremonies involving naked women.

And Rev. Stanley Compton has denied allegations that he is a leading member of a gay nazi movement in the quiet village of Todhamlet.

CHILDREN

And we were unable to find any evidence to support claims that 64 year old Compton was having sex with under age children, some of them boys. But in an outhouse adjoining his home we found firewood, two buckets and a rusty lawn mower.

HORROR

Local residents told us the Rev. Compton came to the village in 1954 and has lived there ever since. They described him as a quiet man, a non-drinker who didn't socialise much but often arranged jumble sales or garden fetes.

NAKED

Reg Dixon, owner of The Golden Lion Hotel in the village told us he had never heard rumours connecting the vicar with midnight sex ceremonies. And his daughter, a shapely 16 year old, told us she was unaware of any satanic activities in the village.

No Girls

'Danced

'Naked' In

Moonlit

Devil Ritual

- claim

Her mother, Mabel Dixon, cook at the Golden Lion, confirmed that neither she nor her daughter had ever danced naked in the flickering flames of a pagan bonfire.

AXE

A regular at the Golden Lion, village vet Norman Taylor said he was "unaware" of any local girls dancing themselves into a hypnotic frenzy in the course of a gruesome moonlit satanic ritual.

VAMPIRES

When we spoke to Rev. Compton he strongly denied any involvement with the National Front. He was however later 'unavailable' to comment on the suggestion that he was breeding giant indestructible killer wasps in a garage adjoining his home.

Are You SEXY?

Fellas - Here's A Chance To Find Out!

What makes men sexy? What is that vital ingredient that turns women on? Is it their haircut? Or their eyes? Or perhaps the kind of trousers they wear. Even the experts are unsure.

Here's a chance for the fellas to find out just how sexy they really are. Simply answer the following questions A, B or C, tot up your final score and then see how your total compares with our experts' sex ratings.

- Are your trousers:
 - Baggy round the waist
 - Comfortable
 - Tight and bulging
- Which of the following do you smoke?
 - No cigarettes
 - Ordinary cigarettes
 - Foreign cigarettes
- You are heading for the bus stop and a bus is about to pull away. Would you:
 - Run for it
 - Walk and hope to catch it
 - Stop and light up a cigarette
- If you nipped out of the house to buy a newspaper, how would you walk?
 - Hurriedly, tripping from time to time
 - At a medium pace
 - Slowly, swaying from side to side
- If you went out for a meal, how would you travel?
 - On a No. 14 bus
 - In a taxi
 - In a flashy sports car with a throbbing engine
- You are in a restaurant and the waiter offers you a starter. Which of the following would you choose?
 - A small bowl of pea soup
 - A couple of poached eggs
 - An enormous wedge of juicy melon
- You wake up one morning feeling sexy. What would you do?
 - Get up and have a cold bath
 - Go back to sleep
 - Go out and buy a pair of leather underpants
- You are at the cinema watching a movie with a friend. What would you do during the interval?
 - Go to the lavatory
 - Buy an ice lolly
 - Put your sunglasses on
- Which of the following pets would you prefer to keep?
 - A parrot
 - A small hamster
 - Several large dogs
- If you went fishing, how much underwear would you put on?

FAT PEOPLE 'EAT TOO MUCH'

- Cream Buns named in Shock Food Report

Eat too much and you could get fat, according to a report published this week. Specific foods singled out for attention include cream buns, chocolate cake and jam doughnuts.

According to a survey carried out for no particular reason, many people in Britain are already overweight. And the report goes on to claim that people who are fat:

- take up more room than other people
- wear bigger clothes
- and are more likely to damage furniture.

CHOCOLATES

We took these startling claims on the streets to gauge the public's reaction. Mrs Hilary Foster, 46, agreed that cream buns were fattening, while her friend, 40 year old Margaret Harrison claimed that she had occasionally eaten chocolates but suffered no ill effects.

SWISS ROLL

Shopkeeper Paul Willis, 27, admitted that several fat people had visited his shop in the past and had purchased food items among other things. The manager of a nearby restaurant refused to comment on claims that fat people were among his best customers.

TRIFLE

A woman we later watched enter the restaurant was visibly overweight, but refused to tell us what she was eating or how heavy she was. Her husband then became abusive and we were asked to leave the premises.

A spokesman for the British Medical Authority told us he had not seen the report, and did not wish to make any comment.

WIN £1.00 IN OUR TERRIFIC VICAR JOKE COMPETITION

Everyone knows a joke about vicars. So we are launching a super competition to find the funniest vicar joke of them all!

Write and tell us your funny vicar joke. In the next issue we'll be printing the finalists and giving you, the readers, the chance to pick a winner. And there'll be a prize of £1 for the funniest joke we receive.

To get the ball rolling we asked a few pop celebrities for their favourite vicar jokes. Here are some of the suggestions we received.

Why did the vicar go to the harbour?
To see the jumble sail.

When is a vicar's door not a door?
When it's a-jar.

What is the brightest day in a vicar's week?
Sun-day.

Why did the chicken cross the road (opposite the vicar's house)?
To get to the other side.

'I'M ANGRY'

EXCLUSIVE

A mere 28 years of age and with only 3 record releases to his name Billy Bragg is already being hailed as one of the angriest young singer/songwriters of the decade.

And song titles like 'Life's a Riot' and 'Which Side Are You On?' give fair warning to would-be listeners that for Billy Bragg pop music is a very serious business.

ANGRIEST

'The Bard Of Barking' as he is known to his family and friends first came to wide public attention with the release of his earthy, emotive EP entitled 'Between The Wars'. It was a top ten hit, but as Bragg admits 'Between The Wars' wasn't one of his angriest songs.

"I was in quite a good mood the day we recorded it and although the song turned out pretty grim it wasn't quite as angry as it could have been."

ANNOYED

However another track on the EP, 'Which Side Are You On?' sees Bragg at his angriest.

"I was really annoyed about the miners' strike at that time. I ended up in the studio swearing at the engineer and throwing things at the producer. Eventually they managed to calm me down a bit, but I must have broken at least a dozen guitar strings recording that one track."

Born in 1957, it wasn't until 1983 that Billy made his first record. But a talent for wrathful songwriting had been evident from an early age.

POP STAR BILLY DOESN'T LIKE THE SYSTEM

"I was pretty bad tempered as a baby," he recalls. "At times I'd get furious and throw my food about the room."

"Then one day at school I was particularly angry. I didn't like the system. I had gone red in the face and was beginning to pull my hair out. I was taken to see the school nurse. She suggested I tried harnessing my energy by starting to write protest songs."

ANGER

But Billy's first attempts at songwriting didn't prove too successful. "I kept breaking the lead in my pencil. It was so difficult to control my anger. Then I began to use a biro, and eventually things began to fall into place."

Billy's two LPs to date, 'Life's a Riot' and 'Brewing Up' have both been hits in the independent as well as popular charts, and his solo live performances invariably draw a large crowd of politically aware young people. But in view of his current level of success and his recent appearances on Top Of The Pops, is it possible for Billy to maintain his anger and discontentment with society?

"People often accuse me of 'selling out', or going mellow, but remarks like that just make me angrier. In fact being on Top Of The Pops made me so angry I nearly swore at a camera man."

"I'll be angry for a good few years yet, don't you worry about that."

AH-HA
THOUGHT

The strength (pictured above) have shot straight in at No.1 in this issue's Top Ten singles chart. Their £1.00 cash bribe secured the top slot for their debut single 'Severance'/'Understanding You'.

And Maidstone's Killer Rabbits (below) have a surprise hit on their hands. Due to total lack of competition their single 'Captain Marvellous', much played on pirate radio in the south east of England, has flown in at No2 despite a token bribe of only one penny.

Do you and your band have a single that you'd like to see in the charts? The Viz Top Ten is open to all recording artists no matter how small or unknown. And unlike the other charts our Top Ten is totally independent and free of 'hyping' and dominance by the major record labels. It gives you, the smaller bands and labels, a chance to buy some chart action at prices you can afford.

Send us a copy of your record plus a bribe. Obviously the more you send the higher your record will go. Each bribe is valid for one issue's chart only. Remember, all Top Ten slots are up for grabs in our next issue so get those records rolling in. Send them, together with a cash bribe to: Viz Top Ten, Viz House, 16 Lily Crescent, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE2 2SP.

CRAZY GUYS

The Killer Rabbits must be the most unlikely pop group in Maidstone. For not only do they have an unlikely name, but their keyboard player appears on stage wearing a hat shaped like a penis.

The current line up has been together for over two years now, but the band's history of unusual clothing goes back a lot further. As long ago as 1980 drummer Morgan Rabbit was wearing women's clothing in a band called The Toolsheds. Killer Rabbits' debut single "Captain Marvellous" is a new entry in the current Viz Top Ten, and the band are hoping to build on this success with a short tour of Holland this summer.

TOO YOUNG TO LOVE

Their parents called it 'Puppy Love', but despite her tender years Camilla Johnson knew her love for Brian would last forever. And she intended to prove it...

I'LL SEE YOU

AND REMEMBER, I LOVE YOU, BRIAN

CAMILLA, DADDY
AND I THINK YOU'VE BEEN SEEING A
LITTLE TOO MUCH OF BRIAN LATELY.
PERHAPS IT WOULD

OH MOTHER!

I THINK MUMMY'S RIGHT DARLING

YOU JUST DON'T UNDERSTAND, BRIAN
AND I ARE IN LOVE,
AND ONE DAY WE'LL BE MARRIED

IN LOVE AT YOUR AGE,
YOU'RE TOO YOUNG TO KNOW
THE MEANING OF THE WORD

I DO LOVE BRIAN AND ALWAYS
WILL. I DON'T CARE WHAT YOU SAY

Camilla left, slamming the door behind her.

JUST LEAVE HER, SHE'LL BE ALRIGHT. SHE'S JUST SO YOUNG, THAT'S ALL

OH I DO HOPE SO

But little did her parents know Camilla already had plans to prove them wrong. That night she met Brian in a quiet pub.

I'VE GOT THE TICKETS

AT 8 O'CLOCK
TOMORROW MORNING

OH BRIAN, LONDON
SOUNDS SO
WONDERFUL. WE'LL BE SO HAPPY THERE,
TOGETHER

YES, YOU CAN GET A JOB IN SHOWBUSINESS,
AND I CAN BECOME A PROFESSIONAL
FOOTBALLER. THEN WE'LL GET MARRIED

CAN YOU SEE THESE DRINKS OFF
PLEASE, IT'S WELL
AFTER TIME

YES WE'RE GOING

That night Camilla silently packed her bags and left a tear stained note for her parents.

And soon she was back in Brian's arms. But this time to stay.

Inter-City

It was a long, sleepless journey filled with the exciting hopes and dreams of the life that lay ahead. The miles slowly drifted by until at last their train was pulling into a bustling Kings
Cross Station.

OH BRIAN, LONDON IS SO
BIG

YES DARLING, SO MANY PEOPLE. FACES WITHOUT

I'M AFRAID NOT

WELL FUNNILY ENOUGH I'VE GOT A FLAT YOU CAN USE, BUT YOU'LL HAVE TO PAY ME £200 CASH IN ADVANCE

I'M AFRAID WE ONLY HAVE £15 BETWEEN US. IT'S OUR LIFE'S SAVINGS

AH WELL, THAT'LL DO

HERE'S THE ADDRESS SEE YOU AROUND

That evening Brian and Camilla looked up the address the stranger had given them. Tired and lost, they asked a passer by for directions.

OOH, FULCHESTER GARDENS. I'M AFRAID YOU'RE FORTY YEARS TOO LATE. IT WAS BOMBED DURING THE WAR. IT'S JUST A CAR PARK NOW.

Exhausted and penniless the young lovers settled down for a night on a rain soaked park bench.

DON'T WORRY DARLING. WE MAY HAVE LOST OUR MONEY, BUT WE STILL HAVE EACH OTHER.

OH BRIAN YOU'RE SUCH A COMFORT. TOMORROW I WILL GO TO THE CLUB IN THE WEST END, THE ONE WHICH A STRANGER RECOMMENDED TO US WHILE WE WERE ON THE TRAIN, AND I WILL GET A JOB IN SHOWBUSINESS

RIGHT SON! YOU'RE FUCKIN' NICKED!!

The next morning Camilla visited the club which had been recommended by a stranger whom they had met on the train. But she was in for a big surprise.

Shocked and in tears, Camilla rushed back into Brian's waiting arms.

VIZ IS TOPS SAYS BOB

Two months ago life was looking pretty grim for unemployed car mechanic Bob Jones, 45.

FUN

That was until Bob, 46, happened to buy a copy of Viz Comic after newsagent Terry Jackson had recommended it. Terry told Bob that Viz was a winner - and fun for the whole family.

JOB

Bob took the comic home, and the next day, he got a job.

PRETTY

Bob's pretty wife wouldn't miss Viz for the earth. She told us how after she had read a copy she regained her eyesight which she had lost in a car crash years ago.

'Fulchester Echo'
2 June '83

And not long after Bob had placed a regular order for Viz, his 5 year old crippled nephew, who specialists had given only seconds to live, was miraculously cured, and won the pools the next day.

FORTUNE

And while Bob and family were celebrating, they heard that a distant aunt had died, leaving them a fortune.

On hearing the good news, Bob's wife, Carol, 42, who had been sterile since her car crash, gave birth to triplets.

Yesterday Bob told us that Carol and the kids were all doing well, and looking forward to cashing their £500,000 premium bonds jackpot which had arrived that morning.

WINNER

So if you're looking for a little sunshine in your life, buy Viz! It's a winner!!

A final word from Bob - "I would recommend Viz to anyone - it's a real fun value winner - for all the family".

Subscribe

Subscribe to Viz Comic and have every issue delivered to you in the comfort of your own home direct from our printers. It's as easy as writing a cheque.

For a year's supply (six issues) simply send a cheque or postal order for £4.20 to Viz Comic Subscriptions, 328 Kensal Road, London W10 5XJ. THERE'S NO NEED TO BUY A STAMP - providing you already have one which you can use.

If you'd like to receive more than one copy of each issue please add £3.50 for each additional copy you require. All cheques/postal orders should be made payable to "Viz Comic".

Advertise

In today's harsh economic climate failure, bankruptcy and collapse could be just around the corner for your business. That's why it makes sense to advertise in Viz Comic.

For as little as £250 per full page, £150 half page or £90 quarter page you could be saving yourself from financial ruin, embarrassment and alcoholism. It's worth a thought.

Ring the Viz Advertising Departments on 01-968 8888 (South) or 091-281 2593 (North) before it's too late.
